“ Dear Nancy, Chic, Sue and families. We are so sorry to hear your news. I have many fond, happy memories of him during his Iowa city visits and especially my summer at your lake house. He was always such a pleasant and exuberant guy, particularly on Friday afternoons when he arrived after working all week in SC!! He loved being around you guys so much; thank you all for letting me share those times. Take care.

“ Nancy, Sue, Chic and families,

So sorry to hear of Dick's passing. He was a favorite manager of mine with JCP as he treated us all with respect while driving us to be the best merchant/manager we could become. He personally helped grow my career path from trainee to profit-sharing management, for which my family and I are forever grateful. He will be missed by his many friends and professional acquaintances that he touched over the years. Our best to all your family in the future years ahead without him.

Our deepest sympathies,
Bob and Beth Lane

“ My deepest sympathies to the Wolf Family at this difficult time of grief. Our Heavenly Father is deeply saddened that death affects all of mankind. He is the God of all tender mercies and comfort. In His Word the Bible he assures us that soon death will be something that we will not experience and all mankind will enjoy endless life in Paradise on earth. These promises can be read at John chapter 11 and verse 25 along with Revelation chapter 21 verses 4 and 5. Please read these encouraging texts for these promises will come true.
