“ Our family considered Julie a cherished friend! She was an amazing woman who was a dear loyal friend to our Mom, Jeanne Friberg, who loved her as a sister! I will always remember her spunk, her humor and her wonderful outlook on life! You will be greatly missed, dear Julie!

“ I remember Julie's great laugh. She always made everything seem lighter and better. I also remember her throwing her walker into the back of her old car--powering on no matter what--after hot afternoons of bridge at my Mom's house (Jeanne Friberg's). I know they're having a glass of ice tea and a cookie, playing bridge and laughing their hearts out. My condolences to her family and her dear friends.

“ My Great Aunt taught me to play Mah Jong and Cribbage. But more importantly, she taught by example. Always interested in other people, she was a wonderful example of living with grace and dignity. She was truly an original Harvey girl!

“ I first met Julie and Jim in the 60's and 70's when yacht club parties were held in homes. I probably met her at J.C. (Pete) and Alma Petersen's home, on Eagle Point. Julie had a twinkle in her eye and a wonderful smile. She was a genuine lady. I visited her at her Lakeshore home about twice a week when we moved here twelve years ago. We chatted about what the lake looked like with ice, snow, rain, sun, and wind.

We talked about sailing. Julie wanted to teach me mah jong, but we never got that done.

We visited at Stonebridge assisted living. She was happy, content and well taken care of. I would take her the weekly newspaper, postage stamps Julie continued to have that twinkle, smile and was vivacious. I will hold her in a special place in my heart.

Julie...what a classy lady. She was witness to many of our shenanigans as we grew up around the lake and never chastised us. At least we didn't think she did. She handled everything we threw at her with class and aplomb. We will miss her and those of her ilk. Bill Phelps

My dearest Auntie Zoo was a tower of strength and optimism! If you told her about something that was troubling you she would say "Oh well..." and then explain why it wasn't so bad after all and how you could deal with it. She played great games of bridge and Mah Jongg and could jump off the dock without getting her hair wet! Love to Jim, Dan, and Pete from Italy.

“ I will never forget Julie sharing a story with me at the Yacht Club one evening. Okoboji was having one of it's brutal summer storms a long time ago, she was in bed worried about the sail boat being tied down. Against her husbands wishes she rose out of bed went down to the dock to secure the boat, then stood at the end of the dock and enjoyed the wind and rain with arms wide open. This memory had still warmed her heart after all those years. I thought it was lovely. My Mom Jeanne Friberg I am certain welcomed her with open arms to the glory of heaven. RIP dear Julie
