“ I am grateful that I knew Alvin. It was my pleasure helping him buy and sell his house in Wallingford. Enjoyed hearing his stories. He always talked about going to the thrashing events. He loved his truck - I will never forget that!!!! Jill Spurgin

“ I will always remember Alvin from the first time i seen him come to Good Samaritan to visit some of the residents and to sit in the lounge and visit with them.. Then came the day he moved into Good Samaritan to live.. He was a very sweet man. For his birthday 1 yr he had the square dancers come and dance for him and the residents. Fun time and to see the sparkle in his eyes as he sat and watch... Alvin was a very quite man. He loved it when he had a roommate. It seemed to make the day go by without being bored.. He got to go to the threshing bee shows and that was pretty exciting when he came back to the home...He would show his button that he got from the show..Alvin will be missed by all who knew him and his family. The staff that took care of him will miss him too. He was such a caring person, he had spunk too... So we will miss Alvin and he is in a better place now, no pain, and he can rest all he wants too now...
God be with you all as you prepare Alvin for his journey home to see God...
