“ Ann spoke at a meeting at my request regarding the Veterans and it was a wonderful presentation. I may have a picture. She was a fine woman and did a great job for the Dickinson County Veterans. We collected money that day for a project for her to get several veterans shoes and hair cuts. She was an inspiration to us all. We thank her for her service to our community.

“ Ann was introduced to our family on Holy Saturday in the year 2000. We sat at our parent's kitchen table and it was so nice and easy to talk with her and be with her. At once it felt like we had known each other since forever. It always felt like that with Ann. Her gift of gab made you feel welcome and loved and her presence was a present and a joy. I believe everyone in the Miller Family would feel this same way. Ann fought like a Viking Queen in her cancer battle with courage and grace and there was never a complaint to be heard. Always grateful to the nurses and doctors who took great care of her during all her treatments, Ann's attitude never faltered and never gave up. Her living touched our hearts and we will miss her deeply.

“ Ann has such an outgoing personality that you couldn't help but to love her. I would see her most days on her morning routine for several years until I took a job a few more miles away. Made a special stop to see her a few months back. She gave me the biggest hug. The community has lost a very special person. Big hugs to everyone she touched.
