Arthur (Art) was born on August 15th, 1928, in Castalia Iowa to Henry and Amanda (Einck) Schultz. He graduated from Postville High school. He was united in marriage to Dorothy M Sloan October 25th, 1951, in St. Lucas, IA. Art and Dorothy had a son Douglas who passed away at age 16. After Doug passed, they hosted several foreign exchange students and kept in touch with each other throughout the years, visiting them in their home countries. They enjoyed traveling to more than 12 different countries with friends and family. Art spent two years in the military serving in Japan. He then began his 40-year career with the U.S. Post Office. His first twenty years were spent on the railway and highway postal service. His last 20 years were spent in Des Moines Post Office and then became Postmaster at the Clive Post Office. He was a member of the Des Moines Barbershop Choir for 25 years and always enjoyed singing. When they retired and spent time in Yuma, Arizona he was a member of the Mesa Verde Court Choir. He loved cars and motorcycles and even owned a Polaris Slingshot.

Art was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Dorothy and his son Doug and his sister Geneva. Art is survived by his brother Lyle and many nieces and nephews.
