“ My heartfelt sympathy to your families. I admire Barb, for she had that beautiful smile for all the suffering she endured to the end. We were friends in school and one of the most fun memories was when we would hide grandpa Herman's janitor cart. He and grandma would play along with us and never get upset with us for hiding his cart! God be with you through these difficult days.

“ She was my best friend, my confidant, my cousin....I remember when I worked at the hospital and looked out the North window and saw Barb and Donnie sitting out front of their apartment. I hollered "Barb!" It took her awhile, looking around to figure out that it was me across the street! lol She babysat at least 2 of my kids, and we would always have relaxing talks in the kitchen when I'd come to get the kids. I'm going to miss her smile, her patience, her love, her hugs, our talks.....Love you precious lady!

“ *Tami,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss of your parents. Neither of them will be suffering with their health anymore. Ironically, they have one another in heaven now. Your family is in our prayers.*
