They then moved to Sioux Valley, Minnesota and farmed there for 4 years before settling on a farm south of Lake Park, Iowa and farmed there for 30 years until retiring to a home in Lake Park in 1993. After moving they both worked for the City of Lake Park taking care of the city parks. Carole was a member of the Silver Star Rebekah's, Silver Lake Cemetery Society and assisted as the Dinner Date manager.

“ Aunt Carole Ann was an amazing woman. She was tough as nails with the kindest heart. I will miss her hugs and I always loved our talks. I know that Jack, Lyla Lee, my father and others were there to welcome her into Heaven. I am sure that they are playing some Cribbage and having a few laughs. I will always love and miss you!
