“ A good high school friend. Met up again in Colorado in the '80s when we both lived out there. We did a tour of the Boulder bars at the time. Then reconnected when he moved back to Milford. A summer ago I had the pleasure of his generosity when he let me stay for a week at his house. He made it so easy to be there. Got to see his terrific work on cars, still loved Zappa and tequila. I will miss him terribly. Even sparing with him politically. I know he's at peace and was totally enjoying retirement life, friends, family, and his church. Paula Mathewson

“ Kyle and I spent many good years together and he was a great rockhouser and silversmith. He made beautiful jewelry and loved hiking the mountains in New Mexico looking for gem rocks. My prayers go out to Chris and all of his family.

“ I moved to Idaho in 1980 and have been here ever since. Growing up in Northern Iowa, the Minnesota Twins were a big deal and Harmon Killebrew was "the Man." I have live In Payette, Harmon's Home Town for 39 years and the 3rd weekend in April has been Killebrew weekend for years. Not every time did Harmon make it to see the Pirates play on a Saturday but one year it was a huge event with a great turnout. My wife (a Payette Native) was wearing an Okoboji sweatshirt and this guy came up to her and asked "how did you get that?" Long story short, Chris was living in the Boise area and came out to shake hands with Harmon, get an autograph and have a burger with the locals and he saw something in Idaho that reminded him of Home. He and I had a great chat, yucked it up and said goodbye. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ Chris was one of the first kids I met when our family moved to Milford in the summer between 2nd and 3rd grade, we only lived maybe 3 houses apart and I'm thinking the rest of the neighbors were glad when we grew up and quit terrorizing the block. I also remember the VW versus Opel Cadet races we had, I remember my Opel and my driving being far superior, Chris may have remembered it differently? My condolences go out to the Kyle family.

“ Jeff, Marian, Deb, and the rest of Chris's family, My heart goes out to you after seeing that Chris passed away. My thoughts went back to about 50 years ago when your family and ours were friends and life was carefree. Chris had such a wonderful sense of humor and his smile made you return it back to him....after you punch him for his wise crack. Please know that you are truly in my thoughts and prayers as you go through this time. Sending all our love. Diane & Ken

“ I'm deeply saddened at the passing of Chris. He was one of the kindest, most genuine, people I came to know in Milford. I don't think there was ever a time that he didn't greet me with a smile, followed by some sort of wise crack and definitely a laugh. My condolences to the Kyle family. Fly high my friend.
