“ Yes, it is hard to lose any child. Chris was only forty-two, but Lung Cancer spread quickly to his brain and to his liver. His father, who Chris missed a great deal when it came to fixing cars, died in 2005. Chris loved to share his talent for cooking, especially his stuffed mushrooms. His dog, Sunshine, will miss him, too. Brian's family will be taking care of Sunshine now. Chris taught Brian how to fish and paddle a canoe. Chris, we love you! Mom, Susan Johnson
