“ I only met Clancy one time, that being at the funeral of Kathy Jones, Clancy's significant other. When I met Clancy I was struck by the gentle spirit and kind heart he conveyed. I was the significant other to David Jones, Kathy's father. David passed away on Thanksgiving Day 2013 but he often told me how glad he was Kathy had found such a wonderful man to be with and that he was so pleased Clancy continued to stay by her side as she succumb to cancer. What a true treasure Clancy was. He will certainly be missed.

“ Family always seems to lose touch with each other at one point or another and I missed way too many years not having Sonny in my life! But that doesn't mean I ever lost my love for him and thoughts of him from time to time. I am so grateful I was there to spend a little bit of time with him before he left this earth. He was a one of a kind uncle and that what was so wonderful about him! I have the regret of losing more time between our families and its too bad it takes something like this together but hopefully can bring us closer and always remain that way! Love you Sonny and will miss you forever... You will be with Grandpa now and what more could you ask for! Rest in peace & much love FOREVER!!

“ Clarence, I will miss your smile, your laugh, your corny jokes, but mostly I will miss your loving and generous spirit and great giant bear hugs. You were always a joy to be with and had a way of making a person just feel good. I love you, brother.

Tami and Pete, my sincere condolences to you and your family. Clarence was such a good, good man and we are heart sick over this loss.

“ I have known Clarence since we were in grade school. We were in the same classes and in Sunday school together. We were in the same group of friends that run around together. We just got to start visiting the last few years and had some nights that friends got to go out and have a hamburger together. We were so glad that he decided to come to our 55th class reunion last June. You are in our prayers. Carol and the Class of 1958 of Worthington MN

“ Clarence was just a great friend. We did some interesting road trips together, Florida or maybe a ride to Sheldon. They were always fun. I will miss him a lot. My deepest sympathy to Tammy, Pete and your families. May God wrap Clarence in his arms and let him fly with Angels.
