“ My name is Keith Percy, Dennis was the only solid father figure I had growing up. It was only a short time from about ten years old until about 14. I'm 36 now and although my life has not exactly been smooth, the good morals and values I do have, along with a solid work ethic, I owe to Dennis. I will always remember him and I am heart broken to hear of his passing. My deepest condolences to his family. I'll miss you Dennis, just as I always have.

“ Shannon,
You don't know me but you know of me, and I want to extend my deepest condolences. I am so very sorry for your loss. I had no idea. I was just telling my sister yesterday that Dennis had been on my mind and I didn't know why, but it was bothering me. Enough so that I googled his name and came upon this page. My hear breaks for you, Dennis was a beautiful person with only good in his heart. He so deserved the years of happiness you shared with him, and so many more, God Bless You for giving him that.

“ So thankful to have lived next to the Dunham family for many years. He taught our daughter how to ride a two wheel bike. Many tubing and boating adventures and a vacation to Florida. Will always remember this kind soul. Gone to soon but no more pain. Thoughts and prayers to Shannon, Amanda and Jenny.

Nancy Vierkant - May 20, 2018 at 02:45 PM

Dennis loved your kids so much and we enjoyed taking Maddie with us...literally everywhere! In turn, you took Jenny everywhere...ha! Teaching Maddie to ride her bike was a great memory indeed. She made up her mind that very minute and Dennis pushed her along and let go and she was off and pedaling her feet as fast as she could! That Arthur Heights cul de sac has witnessed many kiddos riding bikes, scooters, skateboards, 4-wheelers w/ tandem sleds attached in the snow (kids were wearing helmets...we were responsible parents...wink) I love that neighborhood and the great friends that I came out with. Dennis's favorite time of year with the kids was every Halloween taking them out on the golf cart to Trick or Treat. He was their personal chauffeur for the evening with a Coors Light in hand, Dennis just loved it!

“ We were so blessed to have this family as true neighbors and friends. Dennis loved his family and friends beyond measure. May we all be so lucky to have known a man like Dennis...rest high on that mountain where Coors is brewed.

Oh my sweet Kathy, you were a very important person to Dennis. You have such a loving heart, that I believe your heart just might have exploded with so much love. Dennis wanted to make a point to see you and Larry that day we came in the Camaro. He respected Larry and you so much and was so thankful to have you in his life! Thank you for countless favors and the immeasurable friendship that you have shown to us. I treasure it very much.
