“ Ok. Was thinking about Dorothy today and decided to look her up on facebook, only to find out she had passed away 2 years ago! I'm shocked. She was always the picture of health and happiness! We graduated together, roomed together after high school, worked together at K'Mart. She visited me in California and I took her to Disneyland. I'm just so shocked that I didn't know this till now! Dorothy was always so kind and had that little chuckle after something was said. Rest in Peace Dorothy. I'm sure you'll be missed... Jane Johnson

“ Rod, Kyle and Family, My deepest condolences are with you all during this time. Dorothy was always so kind and sweet in the times I bowled with her to the times I watched her enjoying her grandkids being over or at events they were in. She truly loved her family and the lives you had built. My thoughts and prayers are with you!

“ Rod, Kyle, and Family - Our sympathy to all of you. Dorothy was one of the kindest people I've ever known and she always had a smile for everyone. I especially loved watching your little league baseball games with her and bowling with her. She made this world a better place and we were all blessed to know her.
