Irene was born on June 17, 1944 in Livermore, IA to Joseph and Doris Fern (Marlas) Ehrhardt. She graduated from Twin Rivers High School in Bode, IA in 1962. She was united in marriage to Robert Hilbert on April 20, 1962 in Livermore, IA. The couple made their home in Superior, raising their three children there. Irene worked for 10 years for Wadco Foods in Estherville, 25 years for Pure Fishing and retired from Cadre Teleservices in Terrill after 15 years.

The most important thing in Irene's life was first and foremost her grandchildren. She dedicated her time to them and had a special bond with them. She will be fondly remembered for kindness and truly being a selfless person always putting others first. Her coworkers enjoyed her many crock pots full of food she brought to them over the years. Irene was blessed with the gift of gab and no one was a stranger to her. Her family and friends will miss her cards filled with stickers. In her later years she enjoyed adult coloring and sharing her pictures with her family and friends.

She is survived by her son Brian Hilbert of Independence, IA and his children Cory Hilbert and fiancée Lyda Kennicker and Matthew Hilbert; daughter Sonia (Bob) Erickson of Spirit Lake and their children Nicholas and Micayla Erickson; sisters Beulah Taylor of Fort Dodge; Mary Vaudt of Algona, IA; Monica Elsen of Fort Dodge, IA; Celeste Jamieson of Phoenix, AZ; and Annette Crouse of Pella, IA and many nieces and nephews. “ This absolutely broke my heart... I'm typing through a LOT of tears. Irene was a co-worker, a friend, she was like a grandma to all of us at Cadre, always making food for all of us... she would say it was leftovers but you know it was two crockpots full of food just for her Cadre family.... Irene and I talked on the phone often after we both left Cadre -- I will miss that friendship sooo much!! I am soo glad that she's not having to deal with any other health issues - such a strong woman!! I will miss talking about everything under the sun including recipes, her family - who she talked about often and loved greatly!!

My heart goes out to all of you that are Irene's family. Praying that God wraps His arms around you in the form of family & friends just in the time it's needed. You will all always be in my thoughts and prayers. Keep her memory alive... share her stories - she had lots of them!! I love that woman dearly, she was like family to me... she will be missed dearly!!
