“ I was with Jim for a month in 2010 while we battled a similar demon. He was a leader among our group and someone everyone looked up to. I know the following few years were hard and I tried often to get in touch. I regret that I did not do more. Rest easy my friend.

My dear father was a close friend of Jim's for many years. Their friendship dated back to college in the late 60's as they were fraternity brothers at Iowa State. My dad died almost three years ago and I know how much he loved his friend Jim. Jim was a kind, funny man that could always make my dad laugh and smile. God Bless your whole family during this difficult time. God's speed Jim.

All my love-
