

James Montgomery

June 4, 2008

Jim Montgomery, 94, of Wahpeton, passed away Thursday, June 5, 2008, at his home in Wahpeton. He was born on November 10, 1913, in Larrabee, Iowa, to Henry and Loveday Montgomery. Jim graduated from Cherokee High School in Cherokee, Iowa, in 1931, and the University of Iowa in 1935. Jim was united in marriage to Dolores Niblick on December 26, 1939, in Cherokee. Jim was a cattle feeder and farmer. Jim and Dolores lived on a farm near Larrabee, until Jim retired in 1978. Jim was a member of the Larrabee Community School Board, the Cherokee County Board of Supervisors and the Wahpeton City Council. He was also a long time member of the Board of Directors of the Cherokee State Bank, the CML Telephone Coop Board and the Larrabee Coop Elevator. Jim was an elder in the Presbyterian Church of Cherokee and a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Spirit Lake. Jim is survived by a daughter, Ann Barry, and her husband, Rick, of Wahpeton