“ *Starkweather Family,
I am sorry for your loss. Mr. Starkweather walked his faith and it was demonstrated in his interactions with others. One good memory for me of Mr. Starkweather is: During my 6th grade year, I had numerous visits in the principal's office. At the end of that year, on my final visit, Mr. Starkweather said, "Bill, we have enough visit this year, that when you are a 7th grader, I think can call me, Jerry." My excited reply was "Really?" He gave that wonderful smile and said
"No".*

*I have been blessed by Mr. Starkweather and I am not even family.
Praying for you,

“ As we all walk our way down the path of life we encounter many people... If we're lucky some make a lasting impression on us. For me, and apparently many others, Jerry was one of those people. What a fine man. Jerry was one of those priceless people who crossed my path for whom I will be forever grateful. Jerry was just the best.

I met Jerry at Emerald Hills and Jerry and I were golf partners. If you asked him today he would be quick to point out that he has been carrying me for years. That was Jerry..and his quick wit of course. Although a great competitor, he was always so kind, so thoughtful and generous to everyone he encountered.....both on and of the course. I noticed over the years that people were always quick to count Jerry as a friend... and he was in fact a friend to all.

Jerry touched so many people in so many positive ways throughout his life. I'm afraid It's just not going to be near as much fun here on earth without him. I consider myself so very lucky to have known him.

Godspeed dear friend. Go now in peace.

My sincere condolences to you and your family Marge.

“ Dear Starkweathers,

I owe so much to this special man. He was a mentor to me and his friendship and leadership at Rock Valley Elementary during my time as a teacher/coach in the school system will always be remembered. His sense of humor, his empathetic caring of students with special needs and servant heart are just some of the traits he possessed. I had many great talks with him and knew he always had my best interest at heart after speaking with him. Having been a principal's kid myself, I felt a special bond with him and so appreciated all he did for me. He was a great role model and the love he showed for his family was very evident to me, Marge, Randy and Scott, you and your families are in my thoughts and prayers.

Love,

“ My condolences to Mr. Starkweather's family. He was my coach and teacher through Jr. High and High school. I have many fond remembrances of him. We were blessed in a small community to have so many qualified and dedicated young teachers. Jerry was highly respected and worked incredibly long days with us. He was a positive role model and had a sense of humor that I particularly enjoyed. He led us to eighteen consecutive wins my senior year which has been a lasting memory for me. I will miss him.

“ In 1976 we moved to Rock Valley, to become the pastor at First Reformed Church. I'm not sure exactly when it was, but in time I got to know Jerry, and our friendship continued to grow over the years. He was the principal of the elementary school, and did a fantastic job, and our girls attended school there. We also began to play racquetball together, had some great matches on the court, but even better was the social times before and after, as we would visit together. In time, we began to play tennis together, he always referred to me as "lucky". Especially if I happened to win a match or two...and so through the years, he would call me about another match, and it was always "hey lucky". Even after we moved on to Wisconsin to another church, he would every so often give me a call, I never had to wonder who was calling, the greeting was always the same "hey, lucky, how's it going?" And we would always have a good conversation and some laughs in the process.

I always enjoyed playing with and against Jerry, but even more enjoyed our social times through the years. He was a man I greatly admired and treasured his friendship. Even in more recent years, when our paths would not cross very often, still when they did, it was always the same "hey, lucky, how's it going?"

And then when I was living in Rock Valley, I ran a before school program, for any kids interesting, a bit of a Bible Study, prayer time, social time...Scott came to those...and in future years, Scott would start the "My Choice" program, and my own children would participate in that. What a blessing for them and for me.

And so, the connections through the years and all the great memories. My sympathies and prayers to you as a family. So many wonderful memories of times shared with Jerry. I cherish those memories, and the joy of having known Jerry and shared with him through the years.

With my thoughts and prayers,

"Lucky"(Rog Voskuil)
