My condolences to Jill's family. She was a very special woman.

To Jill: From sitting in the airport hangar playing recorder, singing and maybe or maybe not having some Boonesfarm, to the last time I visited at your home, we have had laughs and good times Madrigals, folk group, chior, singing and our children were are greatest joys. Some trials and heartaches in there never negated our friendship and our ability to laugh together.

I believe you are rested and at peace surrounded by those that went before you. That includes my dad who thought so very highly of you. I will miss you and never forget you.

RIP Jill.
