“ I am sorry for your loss. I knew Jon many years ago, and considered him a friend. He also was at the scene of a horrible car accident that I was in when I was 17, and he pulled a blood clot out of my throat that I was choking on and saved my life before the ambulance got there. He truly was an angel for me, and I pray that now he is flying high in peace with his wings. May God Bless you and Keep you through these hard times...
