“ My favorite memories will always be how much she got down on our level and played when we were all kids... Do you remember Ashley when she would come to visit and play chase with us through Grandma and Grandpa's house? Or how she would actually get into those tiny, blue plastic pools with us LOL?

“ We spent a summer together with Aunt Lou and Uncle Leonard. We saw Apollo 11 blast off with the first men to walk on the moon. Was a magical summer.

“ Early this morning my aunt lost her battle with cancer... this woman taught me the electric slide, told me countless stories about how my dad was growing up, she never told me happy birthday but instead sang it to me every year when she would call.. she was smart and strong and had such an amazing attitude even when she was sick and feeling horrible. I'm very grateful to have had this amazing person in my life and it pains me to know I'll never see her again. Auntie lou lou we will miss you.
