“ I loved Marian. My Mom and I would spend time at her house in West Liberty when I was a little girl. One time when I was around 4 years old I stole marbles from a game I found at her house. I hid the marbles in my socks. Mom found them when we got home. We walked back and I apologized for stealing them. I didn't even know what stealing was but I knew then it was bad. She was so kind and I'm sure they laughed about it for years. She will be missed. Hugs.

I will miss my dear friend Marian so very much. Nancy and I visited her every Tuesday for the past few years and prayed with her and shared our friendship and the love of the Lord. We will miss her greatly. God's blessings to all of you. Remember it is only a "temporary" separation when we love the Lord.

My sympathy to Marian's family. We started to school together over 80 years ago & have remained friends (long distance) ever since. We shared lots of secrets over the years & have had many phone conversations since she left southern Iowa. I loved her "like a sister" she would always say.. Go in peace my dear friend
