“ Dear Nancy, Susan, David & families: I echo what others have said about losing both your exceptional parents in such a short time. I certainly was enriched getting to know your father when I ran Meals on Wheels, and I hope both their memories bless you in the years ahead. Love and kindness goes out to you, and should you need anything, give me a call. Best regards, Amy Peterson

We loved visiting with her and staying at her house a couple of times when the whole Newton family was in Spirit Lake. Prayers for you and your family during this very sad time. Love, John and Darla

“ Mary and I played a lot of bridge together in a four-some. She was a good player and a lot of fun. We had an ongoing (friendly) argument about whom was the best crooner--Frank Sinatra or Michael Buble (her choice.) She will be missed. God bless you, Mary.
