“ Ray and David, We were back in the lakes area July 2015. We are so very sorry to hear of Mary's passing. We did not know until we returned home. We felt like she was family since we stayed at Hannah Marie many times since 1989 both just the 2 of us and with family. Thank you to the entire Nichols family for your very generous hospitality. Mary set the bar for all innkeepers. We are sure she went to Heaven with many, many ideas - she was an ever ending spirit and soul how to make the inn a better place for your guests. Such Talent!!!! You guys had the 5 star plus of b&b's. Because of your excellence, we became b&b guests wherever we traveled around the USA. Thank you and God Bless, Eddie and Janet Lozon

“ I am so sorry to hear Mary passed. We knew each other from innkeeping conferences and loved to chat about the industry via phone and email and the commonality and differences between Minnesota and Iowa. She was as dedicated to the success of other innkeepers as she was to the comfort and well being of her guests and family. I will never forget when we partnered on a tea workshop that she surprised even me when she ran into the classroom backwards in full costume yelling "off with his head" for the most vibrant example of a Mad Hattter's Tea. She is indeed in heaven serving tea and sprinkling blessings everywhere. Her spirit of generosity and kindness will be missed by us Northerners as well. She spoke so often and fondly of husband Ray and son David. So very sorry for your loss. Pam Thorsen from Classic Rosewood Inn and Thorwood in Hastings, Mn.

“ I always felt Mary was the Grandmother of Innkeepers in the IBBIA. She was so dedicated and a believer in making things work. Always thought I would come stay and visit her B&B, but never made it. Missed her when she was unable to go the conferences. I'm sure she will be greatly missed. God's peace to you, Ray and David.

“ My husband and I loved staying at the Hannah Marie Inn in Spencer. Visiting with Mary was always a highlight:) Mary was a wonderful women, such a gracious hostess, I loved getting to know her with each visit, listening to her stories of teaching and her childhood. Our deepest sympathy to Mary's family, what a wonderful person!

“ Mary was a stellar hostess whether it was business or pleasure. She was dedicated to making all guests feel welcome. Interestingly, I was researching old photos last evening. I discovered Mary's photo with Duane Hutchinson, a visiting writer. Mary hosted a tea for Duane and Spencer middle school students at her B & B. She was cordial and dedicated to people. Mary never knew a stranger. I am certain that Mary hosted her first tea in heaven where she served angel food cake and star-lit tea.

“ I knew Mary Kay from seeing her in church many years, but only had personal contact with her the past 12 months. She was a prayer warrior for Good News Community Church and an inspiration to myself and my husband Duane. Her faith was unshakable. Her humility inspiring, and her HOPE in God Almighty unfailing. I am thankful to have had even limited contact with her. GNCC will miss such a soul in our midst. Our prayers for your family and friends.
