“ *I realize I'm a little late sending my condolences here, but I wanted to make sure to let you all know how sorry I was to hear of Pam's passing. I got to know and love Pam while working at Compass Pointe. She was the best boss I have ever had! Her no-nonsense attitude and sense of humor were what I loved so much about her. She was truly a wonderful woman! I will treasure the memories I have of her, and will never forget how she taught me to make a proper pot of coffee :) Continued prayers for her entire family and all who knew and loved her. “ Prayers and thoughts with everyone who knew Pam. Weather it was calling my EMDR therapy "voodoo" or talking about our fur babies being brats, she was one of the staples in my life over the years. It's a wonderful thought of her with her mom and Joe, no pain, no suffering and NO MORE DEALING WITH INSURANCE COMPANIES:) RIP Pam.

“ Very saddened by the loss of this amazing lady. Condolences to the family, will continue praying for you all. So happy she went out and got to see those great grands, she was so proud. Pam taught me so much over the last few years, and not just work, but life. Enjoying things and being prayerful and so thoughtful to all. She so missed her mom and Joe. She would randomly tell me about listening to a message she saved where he talked to his Pammy and she told so many amazing stories. I told her many times how much I loved working with her because she kept us on our toes and had a love of chatting over chocolate chip cookies with a strong cup of coffee. You will be so very missed.

“ Our sympathy to Pam's family and friends. We have known Joe and Pam every since they opened Rio Pizza in Spirit. We loved eating everything Joe made, and often sat and visited with both of them, mostly laughing and teasing one another. Then we became even closer to Pam after Joe's death when we prayed and studied God's Word together every Sunday. I loved stopping by her Garage Sales, and always found something I couldn't pass up. One Christmas we were both traveling to Las Vegas, and ran into her at the S falls airport. We happened to be traveling on the same plane, which happened to be delayed and finally canceled at 2am in the morning. We took her under our wing and ended up spending the night at a hotel near by. In the morning, while discussing her dilemma, a gentleman who overheard our conversation, offered her a ride from Las Vegas to LA, Well, I wasn't about to let my friend Pam go off with a total stranger so I asked if he had room for me and my husband. We worried that he might leave us alongside some lonely road, rob us and misuse us. So my husband took pictures of him and the rental car. He ended up being the nicest guy, dropping Pam off at her son's home and taking us to our destination which was 6 blocks from where he was going. It was pouring down rain. God provides and protected us. Pam, you are a beautiful blessing and a wonderful friend. No more worries, God's taken you home. Bob and Kate Shaw

“ My sympathy to the family of Pam. Pam always had stories to tell and could make us laugh on a daily basis. She will be missed by all who knew her. I am sure she is now celebrating her reunion with Joe and her mom, both who were missed dearly by her. There is a quote-"Some people come into our lives, leave footprints on our hearts and we are never the same." Pam was one of those people. May God's peace and love surround you during this time.

“ Pam was as force to be reckoned with. She always made me laugh when she told us stories at work of her driving the yellow mustang with "4 on the floor" Pam will forever be missed, she was a great friend to all, and was always in the mood to act a little silly even when we probably should have been getting stuff done. For the past 8 years she has crossed through my office to go the bathroom which ended up in her sitting in the chair across from my desk. There is a "PamPamPam" size hole in my heart. Fly High beautiful angel.
