Bob was born January 2, 1946, in Sibley, Iowa to Johnnie and Jeanette (Oldenkamp) Peters. The family moved to Paullina where Bob graduated from high school when he was 16 years old. By age 19 Bob had graduated from Westmar College with a degree in social work and was employed by the Iowa Department of Human Services. This began a 37-year career with IDHS. By the time he retired, Bob was a Regional Administrator supervising staff and services for one fifth of the state of Iowa.

In 2001, Bob married Jean Pigg Dowhower. Together they fished the lakes of Iowa. Bob loved to tell stories about how Jean could out fish him even though she couldn't bait a hook. In retirement Bob dabbled with jobs as a Disaster Relief Administrator with FEMA, City Administrator of the City of Dakota City, Nebraska, and consultant to the State of Michigan Department of Human Services.

Bob fiercely loved his family, friends, work, and fishing.

Bob is survived by his wife Jean, his children Robb Peters, Alissa Smith

(Mac), Melissa Lubinski (Vic), bonus children Mitch Dowhower (Sheena), Britni Harris (Jason) and Kristal Stewart (Lauren), 18 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren, two sisters, Sandra Miller (Jim), Ruth Recker (Steve), brother Ron Peters (Barb), sister-in-law Kathy Peters and many nieces and nephews. Bob was preceded in death by his parents, brother David Peters, daughter-in-law Brenda Peters, grandson Blake Robert Peters and granddaughter Brittany Peters.

“ Bob was a tough boss, and if he had a question for anyone, he expected answers, and he knew if someone was trying to pull a fast one. I was always honest and direct when responding or approaching him with a concern. I didn't mind his approach because it helped me to be a disciplined employee. Bob backed me during one of the most difficult times of my life. He stood up for me when two individuals attempted to sabotage my credibility. The director of the agency called me because Bob had called him. The director informed me if there were any further concerns with these individuals he would personally handle the situation. Bob helped me to be seen, heard, and supported. The other Director did so as well. I never felt intimidated by Bob, and I knew he respected me as an employee. I thank God for you Bob and may you rest in peace. May God strengthen comfort your beautiful wife, your children, and your entire family. I say this with much respect, you are greatly missed.

“ I worked for Bob when he was SC Regional Administrator for DHS and I was a DHS supervisor in Woodbury County. When the DHS was laying off supervisors in my position around the state, Bob could have layed me off, too, but he never did. I have always been grateful to him though I have never understood why he didn't. Though sometimes difficult, Bob could also be lots of fun to work with. I am saddened by his death. “ Bob's smile, kind words and a chuckle had me knowing what a great human he was the first time I met him. The Heaven's are lucky to gain him, while we are sad to share.
