Thoughts on Varous Subjects

My dear beloved "Ignatius"; though born elsewhere, New Orleans has lost a unique and special son and I such an interesting, fun-loving and loyal friend that words cannot express our grief. May you find happiness in the House of Joy.

“ I met Rod and Bruce when my mother died and my brother and I went over to their house (it was Super Bowl Sunday) and they were so kind at this difficult time. Our friendship grew from that Super Bowl Sunday and I was sorry when Bruce passed away and was so sorry to hear of Rod's passing. Both of them were really great and I enjoyed visiting with Rod and he always threw the best parties! I'll miss him!”

“ I was saddened to hear of Uncle Rod's passing. I have many memories of Rod, Bruce, Irene and Berdina as we spent Holidays together while I lived in OP. I was happy that Rod joined us last year while we played hockey in Kansas City, it was nice that he visited and was able to meet my son for the first time. Memories always live on! “ Rod was a '72 classmate and it was fun reconnecting with him at the last reunion. I remember a car load of us going to the Lakes & putting a little vodka in our juice and riding the roller coaster & none of us were drinkers so we thought we really had a buzz! It's the funny things you remember, but I always loved those turkey cookies Rod's mom made at Thanksgiving! I mentioned that to him at the class reunion and he didn't even remember them! Rest in peace Rod--we will see you later! You are in God's hands now!

“ My best friend since age 4 is gone. I thank you for the trips we took together, the painting that hangs in my home, the love you shared with me and my family and all the memories in all those years. There will never be another friend like you..

“ Rodney will be remembered as a friend and classmate of mine. He wore his heart on his sleeve. He helped us out for the Art Fair at school. We tye dyed T-shirts together, and later we went to my house for pizza. He let me drive his parents new car that day also. Our Lord has taken him home to be with loved ones. He is in a much better place now, and all his pain and worries are gone thanks to our Lord. Farewell until we meet again.

“ Rod, you will always be unforgettable to me. My deepest sympathy, care and concern are sent to his family. Being his sister, Jan's, best friend from nursery school to the present, Rod has always been a part of my life....the proverbial little brother. It is hard to think that he has moved on, but that is all.....just moved on to where we will all meet again someday. See you later Rod!
