“ Aunt Jane,

I am so very sorry for your loss and very saddened at the passing of my favorite uncle, Uncle Ron. He was always there while I was growing up, patient and kind, taking the time to explain things to me and always having a funny story or good joke... one of those rare adults who didn't treat me as a 'kid'. You & Ron were the relatives I was always most glad to see at family gatherings, and the summer visits to your farm were one of the great highlights of my childhood and teen years. To me, you two were always the "cool" members of the family with your van and your blue Mustang.

Riding in your canoe with you two as a child was a really big deal for me, and decades later it became one of my most treasured family heirlooms, having learned to paddle from you & Ron. Uncle Ron was the guy who taught me to ride a horse and to ride a motorcycle, which later became a major factor in my adult life. He always had good advice, tempered with common sense and the wisdom of of experience.

In later years, I always looked forward to coming home on leave, visiting you two at Minnewashta, and boating on the Iowa Great Lakes. I will never forget the things I learned from Uncle Ron, and what a good man he was. You can be ever so proud of your husband. May God grant you His peace.

Love,
Eric
