Ryan Joseph Nielsen was born on July 16, 2001, in Spokane, WA, to Drew Nielsen and April Nielsen. He graduated from Spirit Lake High School. Ryan had an eye for fashion and was a skilled clothing designer proficient in sewing and styling. He created his own LLC, Self-Obsessed. Before he passed, he was preparing for his first clothing release.

In his free time, he enjoyed listening to music, painting, hanging out with his sisters, and designing and sewing clothes. He deeply loved his cat Moonchi. He also enjoyed going out with family and friends, going thrifting, taking nature walks, sitting by the water, and biking. He had a passion for new things, he loved taking trips to new places and trying things he had never experienced. Ryan held a deep love for the arts.

Left to cherish his memory are his parents, father Drew Nielsen of Spirit Lake; mother April Nielsen of Arnolds Park; sisters Faith and Paige Nielsen both of Cedar Falls and his twin brothers Ray and Kevin Portello of Lynnwood, WA.

“ Faith is one of my closest friends ive ever had i fell in love with her entire family when i got the privilege to know ryan i really enjoyed him i felt that we had alot in common. Ryan was an artist and a visionary i loved the passion he held and the love he had for everyone and everything he did. The passion ryan had was breathtaking and beautiful. And I'm so fortunate to have had the privilege to be close to him and his family. He was a good soul and he obviously cared so much for the world and for others. Im very distraught I'll never get to see him again i loved the time i did have with him. And i wish i would've spent more. Condolences to the Nielsen family. Thank you faith for letting me into your home and into your family and thank you for the opportunity to ever know ryan. He is a kind and empathetic soul.

With love, Ken

“ Ryan was my girlfriend Faith’s brother. I didn’t get to spend as much time with him as I wanted to but the days we spent together last summer and the times he visited us at college will forever be in my heart. He was an amazing person with a passion for arts and fashion design. The world deserves to see the things he created. He was incredibly loving and an amazing brother to Faith and Paige as well as a the best son April could have asked for. All love to Ryan and the surviving members of his family I love you always.
