“ Although months have passed, and no service has happened due to Sarah's passing during COVID, we will always have such incredible memories of Sarah (and Dale) and their "On Golden Pond" lake house. She was an incredible grandmother and great grandmother, wife, and impacted so many young lives as a teacher. Rest in Peace G'ma Sarah & we're happy you're with Dale again.

“ Mrs. Lundstrom was my kindergarten teacher, one of my many favorite educators and I have often thought and shared wonderful stories of her and that time in my life. The most important lesson was knowing the last four letters in the word American = I can! I have carried that with me all of my life. I am happy that she had a long beautiful life doing what she loved and was extraordinarily good at! Godspeed RIP Mrs. Lundstrom. 🙏💕🐢 Love, Patrick Michael McCluskey

“ My husband Bill and I were fortunate to live next door to Sarah & Dale for 17 years. The first time we met Sarah, she was on the roof of the house. The first time we met Dale he was surveying the yard, with a drink in his hand. They were the best of neighbors. Both very hard working and they kept their lakeshore property immaculate. Sarah was a treasure.

“ Mrs. Lundstrom was my kindergarten teacher. She made you feel like you were the only person in her classroom. Her kindness and love for her students never ended. I sang a solo at Grace Lutheran Church, and to my surprise I received a lovely note from Mrs. Lundstrom telling me how much she enjoyed my singing. She always knew how to make your day start off with a smile. It is sure too bad we couldn't have cloned her as we need more angelic people like her in the world. She is the true meaning of an angel.

“ I was so proud that my name was the same as my kindergarten teacher's, and spelled the same way. I had great apprehensions about starting school, but with the kindness and warmth of Mrs. Lundstrom's heart and teaching style, that faded away. My grandparents were the same age as Mrs. Lundstrom, and got along with her famously. The way they were included in my education at Spirit Lake Elementary helped us to bond to the system throughout my education. My deepest sympathies to the family, and Mrs. Lundstrom will be greatly missed.

Sally Stockdale - December 28, 2020 at 07:57 PM

“ Sarah came into our lives when my husband and I decided to homeschool our son, John. We weren't concerned with Spirit Lake's educational system, far from it; our goal was not to try to duplicate what they did, but to offer our son a more unconventional approach that only one-on-one could provide. After Superintendent Harold Overmann thoughtfully considered our aspirations and plans he said, "I know just the person to supervise your schooling, Sarah Lundstrom. I'll contact her to see if she would consider it."

It was love at first sight when we met Sarah, who joyfully took on the role of academic supervisor for John. She also became my guide and mentor to make sure we were covering all the bases for a well rounded education. Soon she grew to be a family member to all three of us - and a surrogate grandmother to John.

So many memories of her visits as our supervisor for three years come to mind, and many more as our friend. Visits were always an occasion for celebration. She would pop in several times a month, discuss John's progress and then we would have fun. John was especially good at mental math and would climb up on the monkey swing - each solved problem would elicit a big "under-duck" (push) that lasted till the next problem was solved! We always had some science experiment bubbling away, and Sarah would question John about the process and what he discovered. We read aloud and acted out parts. A big project was designing and erecting a homemade tee-pee (from a discarded hoist cover and piping), decorating it with artwork, and then just enjoying it - sitting inside - reading or imbibing in the tea and sandwiches just made. Sarah was full of enthusiasm and ideas. Sarah always brought her expertise and wisdom into our home and it was wrapped in love and joy.

Sarah was a dreamer, whilst still keeping grounded. Anything under the sky was possible, and she had the knack of making us know we could accomplish anything we truly wanted. She made us feel so special, and so loved. Everyone should be so lucky to have a Sarah in their life.

Sarah, may you know that you and your legacy of love live on forever in our hearts. Rest in Peace. Blue skies.

“ Sarah was my kindergarten teacher. I so loved her I went home at the end of the school year and told my mother I had failed kindergarten, and would have to repeat the year. “ I was fortunate to be in her kindergarten class but even more fortunate to be her friend later in life. It always amazed me how she remembered every one of her students- not just in name but in who they were as people. You meet very few special people like her and you know it instantly when you meet her that she is a person you will never forget. Her ability to make everyone feel special is exactly what every teacher should aspire to and she did it effortlessly. I know every former student is looking for their sleep mat for some "quiet time" to reflect on the loss of a truly incredible woman. Prayers to the family.

“ I am just one of those many kindergarten students that she had but, when I saw her, she always made me feel like I had been the only one. Since we didn't have pre school before kindergarten in those days, she was this kind and loving person that ushered us into this thing called school and sent us off on the life long journey of learning. She lived not too far from us and I would sometimes see her outside of school too. In recent years she was at Accura and just down the hall from my Mom so I would always greet her and visit as I went by. Once they closed the nursing home, the visits stopped and I'm sure she missed the many people that would make that stop just to see this sweet woman. Still the same caring Mrs. Lundstrom as ever. Sarah was my kindergarten teacher in 1975. I remember her saying "Our names rhyme!" At that time I did not know what that meant until I went home and my parents told me what that meant. From then on-- I was hooked on everything she did-- from her fur clogs, to the band-aids that had special medicine on them--- she knelt down to every child to be on their level. She inspired me to be a teacher. She also loved golden retrievers--and my folks bought their first golden from Dale. She truly will be missed.

“ Mrs Lundstrum showed great patience with me as I was always trying to hide under her desk or in the closet. Later as fellow teachers we collaborated in creating objectives and goals for curriculum. I asked her what she did with hers from year to year; she replied " I put them in a 3-ring binder and placed it on the top shelf in her classroom closet where they sat until the next year that administration called for goals and objectives the next time, blow off the dust and cobwebs and good to go with some slight changes."
