

Shirley Jean Werner

March 27, 1928 - February 3, 2023

Shirley Werner of Omaha, NE, formerly of Okoboji and Fort Dodge, passed away on Friday, February 3rd, 2023, at Heritage Pointe Assisted Living in Omaha, Nebraska.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, February 11th at 2:00 PM, at the Robinson Funeral Home in Spirit Lake, IA. A visitation will be held one hour prior to the service.

Shirley Jean Werner was born March 27, 1928, in Minneapolis, Minnesota to Jacob and Myrtle (Singer) Westvig. Myrtle died shortly after Shirley's birth. A few years later, Jacob married Florence (Anderson) Westvig, and they raised Shirley together. Shirley graduated from high school in 1946. After, she attended and graduated from the University of Minnesota, School of Medical Technology in 1949. For 9 years she worked as a lab technician. On September 9, 1950, she was united in marriage to Frederick (Fritz) Werner in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Shirley was a member of the 1st Presbyterian Church in Fort Dodge. In her free time, she enjoyed mahjong, bridge club, knitting and reading. She was a wonderful cook and enjoyed traveling with her husband Fritz.

Shirley is preceded in death by her parents, husband Fritz, and daughter

Nancy. Left to cherish her memory are her son David Werner of Coralville, Iowa; daughter Lisa Werner of Omaha, Nebraska; and grandchildren Nikkole Werner, Brittney Werner, Zachary Luppen and Shelby Luppen.

In lieu of flowers Shirley's family requests that donations to be made to the International Essential Tremor Foundation. <https://essentialtremor.org/donate/> “ Lisa, I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I have been thinking about both of you the last few weeks and tried to find your phone number to touch base. I guess now I know why.

I have many lovely memories of your mother, particularly of our times at the lake. She a was beautiful, kind, loving lady ... a pleasure to be around. Blessed to have met you, her, Fritz and the rest of your family. Love, Jenny Henrich
