

Terry Osgerby

September 25, 1946 - June 5, 2025

Terry Burdette Osgerby, of Spirit Lake, Iowa, passed away at his home on June 5, 2025. He was 78 years old.

A memorial service for Terry will be held at 10:00 a.m. Friday, June 13, 2025, at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Spirit Lake. Visitation will be held from 5-7 p.m. on Thursday at the Robinson Funeral Home in Spirit Lake. Arrangements are under the direction of the Robinson Funeral Home in Spirit Lake. Online condolences may be left at www.spiritlekefuneralhome.com

Terry was born on September 25, 1946, in Spirit Lake, Iowa, to Richard G. M. Osgerby and Bernice "Beanie" Mikelson Osgerby. A proud son of Spirit Lake, Terry grew up immersed in small-town values and the joy of athletics. He spent his early years playing sports, exploring the outdoors, and learning leadership and service through the Boy Scouts—experiences that helped shape the man he would become. He graduated from Spirit Lake High School, where he excelled in football, basketball, baseball, and track. He went on to attend Iowa State University, continuing his education and cultivating the passions that would shape his life and career.

On August 18, 1970, Terry married Marcia Elisabeth (Rensink) Osgerby in Phoenix, Arizona. Together they built a life filled with love and a shared commitment to their family and community.

Terry had a lifelong love for the Iowa Great Lakes area, where he felt most at home. It was on the Queen on West Lake Okoboji that he met Marcia, the woman who would become his wife. Some of their favorite times together were spent dancing at the Roof Garden—joyful nights that stayed with him throughout his life.

Terry dedicated over 30 years to teaching social studies and physical education at Spirit Lake Schools. He also served as a devoted coach for football, basketball, baseball, and track—impacting the lives of countless students and athletes with his wisdom, encouragement, and deep care. In 1986, he received a state award for Outstanding Secondary School Physical Fitness and Sports Program—an honor presented by the State of Iowa recognizing his significant contributions to youth fitness and athletics. Many knew him as “TBO” or “Coach O,” and to those names he answered with pride. He loved his family deeply—but he also had a profound love for the many athletes and students he coached and taught.

Terry was a proud Iowa State University alumnus, a member of the Iowa State Education Association, the Iowa Basketball Officials Association, and the Iowa Track and Field Coaches Association. He was also a long-standing member of St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Spirit Lake, where he found both faith and fellowship.

To his family, he was a brother, uncle, cousin, dad, and grandpa. Some of the things we will forever love about him were his uncanny ability to remember sports statistics from decades ago, the genuine connections he formed with people over the years, and the way he always seemed to be the subject of the best stories shared around the table. Terry was also known for his ornery sense of humor, strong opinions, and stubborn streak—a combination that made him both unforgettable and deeply endearing to those who knew him best.

Family time was sacred to Terry. Some of the most cherished memories came from summer road trips in the family van, adventuring through national parks with Marcia and their kids—camping, hiking, and soaking in the natural beauty of the country together.

A lifelong fan, Terry could always be found cheering on his beloved Spirit Lake Indians, Iowa State Cyclones, and Minnesota Vikings. Whether in the stands, on the sidelines, or in his living room, he supported his teams with unmatched loyalty and heart.

Left to cherish his memory are his daughter Elisabeth (Joe) Jennings of Spirit Lake and their children Caleb (Faith) and Hannah (Christian); his son Kerry Osgerby of Spirit Lake and his daughter Olivia; his daughter Alecia (Rob) Fagen of Urbandale and their children Lauren and Meredith; and his daughter Sara (Elijah) Cornell of Spirit Lake and their son Cael. He is also survived by his siblings Diane Jenkins and Michael Osgerby, and many nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

There are far too many names to list—but Terry tried. He kept written lists of students, athletes, fellow coaches, coworkers, and friends who meant something to him over the years. His memory was long, his connections were genuine, and his legacy lives on in all those lives he touched.

Terry was preceded in death by his parents; his beloved wife, Marcia; his infant sister, Karen Sara; his infant brother, Michael Burdette; his brother, Richard Charles “Dickie”; and his sister, Joan Leone “Joanie” Campbell.

Terry’s legacy lives on in the lives he touched—as a husband, father, grandfather, teacher, coach, and friend. He will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

“ I was a para in the middle school and was lucky enough to spend time in Terry's room. You don't know a person until you spend years in a classroom with someone. I will tell you that Terry Osgerby is one in a million. Absolutely fantastic. I have 3 children that had Osgerby as a teacher. 2 of my children absolutely loved him. The other not so much. She respected him but could not for the life of her figure out what he wanted out of his class. See, Terry Osgerby challenged kids. He gave them assignments and let them think outside the box, to use their creative, higher thinking skills. It was a challenge for my daughter. A challenge she had not yet faced in school. But what did Terry Osgerby do with his teaching he set his students up for challenges in life. He gave them a way to think outside the box, to see that life is a challenge and you have to be prepared to see at many different angles. He prepared his students for life. He loved each and every one of them. I miss his gruff exterior but his heart of gold and his smile that would warm your heart. May you enjoy that beautiful wife of yours in Heaven knowing that you made a huge difference to many peoples lives here on earth.

“ I have endless memories of just being with my dad. Going to Thursday night men's league. Putting air in all the basketballs for the summer camp he did for the high school boys. Him recording me shooting free throws in the driveway. Getting me my first set of golf clubs. Building the trailer for the lawnmowers. Mowing, and almost dropping one over the ledge into West Lake. Lifting my legs on the riding mower when I saw snakes at the church. To dumping leaves. When I played him in the homecoming skit my freshman year, we got FIRST PLACE!! His Snoopy snow sculpture. Sneaking out of my room to sit in his recliner with him and watch Johnny Carson. His clipboard of plays, for both football and basketball. Our Christmas Eve shopping trips. The family vacations to National Parks, getting to see Yellowstone, Old Faithful, the Grand Canyon, Lake Tahoe, and camping in our giant van. Disneyland tea cups. River rafting and walking up stream to jump off a cliff into the raging river (mom was the first to go without hearing instructions and we looked like her little ducklings jumping in after her). To make our way to Phoenix so mom could see her family. Climbing Squaw Peak.

He was a complicated man and I had a bond with him that even I can't explain. He loved fiercely and believed that everything was a learning experience.

It's hard to believe that both of my parents are gone, and only one week shy of 4 years ago my siblings and I were planning our mother's funeral. So cheers to you Daddy O.

“ So very sorry to hear of Coach's passing!

One of my deepest feelings in remembrance is that he cared - about his family, his community, and his students/athletes. I remember after our last game of the basketball season my junior year, I was sitting on the bus in utter disappointment after arriving back to the HS. He walked back, put his hand on my shoulder and simply said, "next year. that'll be your time", giving my shoulder a reaffirming squeeze. Now, the following year wasn't much different in terms of W/L ratio, but it was what I needed in the moment. He not only knew it, he cared enough to be with me in my disappointment and do his best to reassure me.

Regardless if it was in the classroom, on the court, field or track, he wanted us to be our best.

Thanks Coach!

“ A Tribute to Coach Terry Osgerby (“Coach O”)

Some people walk into your life and leave an impact that time can never erase. For me—and for so many others—that person was Coach Terry Osgerby.

Coach O wasn’t just a corner coach. He was the voice in my ear when doubt crept in, the steady hand on my shoulder when I needed grounding, and the driving force that helped me become a better version of myself—not just as an athlete, but as a person.

He believed in me and my teammates, often more than we believed in ourselves. He saw our potential on the tough days, in the quiet moments, and when the scoreboard didn’t tell the whole story. He didn’t just coach us. He invested in us. And in doing so, he changed our lives.

Coach O loved the Spirit Lake Indians with everything he had. That pride and passion radiated in everything he did—from early morning practices to late-night film reviews. His commitment was tireless, his loyalty unmatched.

I also want to honor the incredible group of mentors who stood beside him: Coach Backerman, Coach Graff, Coach Rizzutti, and Coach Jackson. Each of them brought their own kind of greatness, wisdom, and leadership into our lives. They were educators, motivators, and examples of character and courage. I’m forever grateful for their influence, encouragement, and belief in us.

But no one did that more—no one believed more fiercely, pushed more consistently, or cared more deeply—than Coach O.

Thank you, Coach, for seeing something in us, for expecting greatness, and for showing us how to chase it. Your legacy lives on in every one of us who had the privilege of being coached by you.

With a heavy heart I remember the life and legacy of a dear friend, former teacher and passionate supporter of Spirit Lake Athletics. I had the honor of serving as his principal for nine years, during which time I witnessed firsthand his unwavering dedication to his students, his colleagues, and the entire Spirit Lake Community. He was more than an educator-he was a mentor, an inspiration to the athletes he coached and a true supporter of Spirit Lake athletics. His love of teaching and his pride in the athletes he coached inspired generations of students. Whether in the classroom, hallways, or the stands, his presence was always one of encouragement and enthusiasm. His legacy will live on through the countless lives he touched. He will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
